LOCAL NEWS.

Last day of the quarter.

The prison puzzle hangs on a verbal crook.

Sharpshooters were practising at the range yesterday.

Subscriptions for the Thomas Square band stand are being collected.

The bath house case will be called again in the Police Court to-day.

It is rumored that the band will play at Thomas Square next Saturday.

To-night the Honolulu Rifles will organize into a battalion and elect officers for the different companies thereof.

Two cases of drunkenness and one of selling goods without a license were on the police slate at 11 o'clock last night.

King street might be called Wheelbarrow avenue with propriety, both sides of it being generally lined with that class of vehicle.

The Mossman property, corner of Fort and Beretania streets, fell to Mr. Saml. C. Allen yesterday for $3,300, Mr. Levey being the auctioneer.

The highest left hand bowling done so far at the Fort street alley is a score of 87. Any person beating that within a week is offered a week's rolling free.

About all of the seats for the old folks' concert were taken at 5 o'clock last evening, and spaces for loose chairs are next to be spotted till all the room is occupied.

At the Lyceum last evening, a committee, consisting of Rev. S. E. Bishop, Mr. J. O. Carter, Mr. H. A. Parmelee, Mr. W. A. Kinney and Mr. E. C. Damon, were appointed to confer with a committee of five of Fort-street Church, on the advisability of uniting the two congregations, and to report to the Bethel Union at a future meeting.

Mr. Charles Hustace, jr., has made an oil painting of the Atlantic steamship Arizona. It is very well drawn and colored, its water is very natural and atmosphere fairly so. As the painter has had no instructions, the effort is all the more creditable to him. At present the picture, in a handsome gilt frame supplied by Messrs. King Bros., may be seen in Mr. A. M. Hewett's bookstore.

Mr. C. P. Thompson, agent for Bancroft's publishing house, San Francisco, was arrested yesterday afternoon, for "selling" goods of foreign production without a license. He told the Marshal that he had applied for a license ten days ago. After the warrant for his arrest was issued, he went to the Interior Department and obtained a license. The weather is getting rather sultry for unlicensed vendors of foreign productions.

SIDE LIGHTS.
A fine lot of new art goods are now opening at King Bros' Art store.

Fresh oysters by the Zealandia at the Club House.

Smoke the "Little Dudes," to be found at C. J. McCarthy's.

A life insurance policy and good wine are alike. They become more valuable with age. Take out a policy in the Mutual Life of New York. S. G. Wilder, agent.

In all the capitals on the Continent of Europe, the theatres and opera houses enjoy a very considerable subsidy from the Government. Yet, in spite of that, heavy deficits are of regular annual occurrence. The Grand Opera in Paris, which has one of the most liberal allowances, runs behind to the tune of $40,000 to $50,000 every year.

The bulldog in the show whose part it was to seize the villain by the throat and hold on for dear life succeeded at Cincinnati the other night in dragging from under the player's collar the piece of liver which coaxed him on, and, taking it before the footlights, he sat down and quietly ate it, while the villain escaped.

SUPREME COURT.

AT CHAMBERS.
Before Judge Preston, Wednesday, March 30. Bankruptcy of Thomas K. Clarke.

Petition of J. F. Hackfeld, assignee, for allowance of accounts and discharge. The accounts and vouchers of the assignee were examined and approved. The Court orders the balance remaining from sale of bankrupt's property, after paying assignee's expenses and commission, and creditors Wilder's Steamship Company in full (Hackfeld & Co. the only other creditors requesting the latter done), paid into this Court, and afterward paid to Messrs. Hackfeld & Co., and their receipt taken therefor, said balance being $28,023.23. No one appearing to object, the Court orders the discharge of the assignee, and his bond cancelled. L. A. Thurston for the assignee and assignee in person.

Thomas H. Patterson vs. the bark Kalakana. Libel of intervention by nine seamen, amounting altogether to $1,740.75 more or less. The claim of Philip Loper, after investigation, is ordered to stand over, as it does not agree with the articles of shipment. The Court orders that all are entitled to wages to the 21st instant, the day of the decision in the libel of Thomas H. Patterson, and order of sale of vessel; also, that the balance of wages due William Kenson is $168, and J. A. Mills, second mate, $210.37. Four of the men admit the ship's accounts against them to be correct, one admitted the ship's account conditionally, and a sixth disputed his account. The hearing was continued until claims shall have been filed for specified amounts by the last six mentioned above.

Habeas corpus. An application was made for a writ of habeas corpus by Messrs. Smith, Thurston and Kinney, on behalf of Francisco P. dos Santos, a Portuguese subject, now in Oahu jail, convicted of the offense of "hoeha me ka mea make" at Punaluu, before George Timoteo, District Justice, on the 29th January last. The application was granted, the writ issued and made returnable at 1 o'clock to-day.

Police Court.

V. Estall, referred to yesterday, was mulct in $13 for exercising the functions of a gross cheat.

Antone Freeman's forfeit for a performance entitled assault and battery was entered $25.

Two Marys, one J. Freitas and one J. Diaz were making a racket during the hours allotted by the "midnight moon" as she serenely smiles o'er nature's soft repose, to peace and quietness. One of the Marys and all of the J. Diazes went off each $10 poorer and wiser, and the other three defendants were discharged.

He Couldn't Have Her.
"No, sir! You can't have my daughter, and that settles it!"

"Will you tell me why, sir? I am her equal in every way, and stand with a good reputation."

"That's it! That's it! You're a bank teller and a Sunday school teacher, and—and—well—Canada's full now."

It seems probable that ere long velocipedes will be in use in all European armies. In Italy it has been in vogue since the year 1876, and in Austria since 1885. In France the result obtained during the grand manoeuvres were sufficiently satisfactory to induce the Minister of War to contemplate which machine will be most serviceable to adopt in the future.

TALK OF THE TOWN.

The talk is that the writer of a letter in the Bulletin the other day has not travelled on the Palama road for some time; that the easiest license to get is one to use opium; that the bathhouse case will be dropped as suddenly as it was taken up; that any kind of "business" can be carried on in Honolulu provided the boss sleeping partner can be got; that rents have not come down many points nor for many tenants; that a "no rent" agitation would not work in Hawaii; that the oppressors of native Hawaiians are of their own household; that native usurers charge as high as one hundred per cent on mortgages; that Mr. Wilder did better than the Hawaiian Government in the London money market; that the honorable gentleman just named will bring good times with him on the 6th; that Hawaiians throughout the Kingdom who gratified their honest convictions in the last elections have been reprimanded and ordered not to do it again; that the judge should have ruled that the most inconsistent thing for the Premier to have said was just what he was most likely to say; that there will soon be half as many cab stands as there are cabs in Honolulu; that if the opium license law will not hold water, a special session of the Legislature will be called to protect the license and his confederates; that the "National party" will get its next majority from Samoa; that British Imperial Federation will be nowhere alongside of the Polynesian Empire; that the champagne did not need any Bush to effect the Hawaii-Samoa compact, but that Bush will need more champagne to set the ink in the treaty; that spelling reform has made considerable progress since the times to be typified by the old folks' concert; that the choice of a battering ram for the Kai-moia lies between an old wether on the "gentle shepherd's" Lanai ranch and Jim Dodd's billygoat.

Dangerous Work.
The quarrymen on Punchbowl hill have lately been conducting their operations very near the road, at a point overlooking the German and Portuguese villages. In consequence the inhabitants of that vicinity are put in a situation of extreme peril from the blasting of rock. The other day a large stone was hurled through the roof of Mr. Enos' house, falling in a room next to that occupied by a lodger. Another large stone, weighing about thirty pounds, struck a line of clothes hung out to dry, on the fence very close to the house. A third stone crashed through the veranda. People living up there are beginning to wonder whether they have any rights that the quarrymen are bound to respect, particularly if they are entitled to protection of their lives and property.

Since the above was in type, it is learned that the Deputy Marshal, on complaint being made of the danger to residents of the locality, sent officers up to the quarry to see that proper precautions were taken against harm from the blasting.

Shipping Notes.
Apparently there are going to be as long passages to report in this as in the other direction, between San Francisco and Honolulu.

Steamer C. R. Bishop brought 2,000 bags sugar; schooner Waiehu, 540; Kaulila, 1,363, and Mangokawai 300 bags rice and 75 bags paddy.

Bark Hydra will sail for Hongkong on Saturday with Chinese passengers. Schooner Canute is on the Marine Railway.

Steamer W. G. Hall sails for Maui, Hawaii and the Volcano to-morrow at ten.

Kilauea being again active and worth seeing, travel in that direction will likely be brisk for a while.

A Fine Writer.
A Washington dispatch says: The most accomplished penwoman or penman among the fifteen thousand and more Government clerks is Mrs. Helen M. Avery, of the Interior Department. Mrs. Avery writes all the commissions, promotions and dismissals for the department. Her cursive is a model of uniformity and clearness. It is doubtful if her superior exists even among the professional teachers of writing. The President is a great admirer of Mrs. Avery's penmanship, and frequently refers to it in complimentary terms when it comes, as it often does, under his observance. Mrs. Avery is also a clever pen and ink artist. A head of Tasso drawn by her a few years ago is said by connoisseurs to be equal to the finest steel engraving. She does her work rapidly, and apparently without effort. Her duties occupy about two hours a day; the rest of the time she employs as she chooses. Her position in the department is supposed to be as near an approach to a life tenure as the most successful Government employee can hope to obtain. Her salary is $1,600 per annum.

City man—What the blazes is the matter with that hen?

Farmer—Nothing; she has just laid an egg.

City man—Great Scott! One would suppose she had laid the foundation of a brick block.

Woman Suffrage in Wyoming.

One of the prettiest and most prominent members of fashionable society in Washington this winter is a lady who has the proud distinction of having voted for her husband when he ran for Congress. The lady in question is Mrs. Joseph Carey, wife of the delegate from Wyoming Territory. Mrs. Carey, while in no sense a "strong-minded" woman, is an ardent believer in female suffrage. She has seen the practical working of the system in Wyoming, and pronounces as absurd the common argument that the right of suffrage unsexes a woman.

At an evening party recently where Mrs. Carey was giving utterance to these sentiments, Senator Wade Hampton blandly interjected the remark:—"But, of course, you always vote as your husbands instruct you, do you not?"

Mrs. Carey's black eyes snapped merrily as she replied:—"Indeed we do not. The first time my husband ran for office I voted against him, and my mother supported him. In each case we thought the other man would make the better officer. I mention this to show you that in our family, at least, the women use their right of suffrage about as they please. Moreover, the conferring of this power upon women has a good moral effect, especially upon those whose husbands are politicians. You may believe that where every woman is permitted to vote the wives of the politicians are very chary about unduly criticising the other women. To do so means the creation of enemies for your husbands, who can work him a great injury if they choose. It is a powerful check upon the tongue, I assure you."

A Chess Congress.

Chess players may be interested to know that the arrangements for the American Chess Congress of 1887 have now assumed a definite form. There is to be an international tournament, and it is intended to devote $5,000 to the provision of prizes for the first five or six winners. A proposal is made by the committee, of which Mr. Steinitz is one of the members, that the games played by the masters should be strictly reserved for publication in an authorized volume, the players apparently being expected to pledge themselves not in the meantime to publish them in any form. This, with one or two other restrictions, will probably have to be withdrawn if it is desired to attract the leading European players across the Atlantic.
